

session 1 - pensions: the new regime & planning session 2 - effective IHT planning

Thursday 16th June 2011

In the last 12 months we have seen the most significant changes to pension legislation since A-Day. These changes affect people still working and also those in retirement. In this seminar you will find out if and how these changes affect you and how you could plan your affairs going forward to ensure you take advantage of the opportunities but also avoid some of the pitfalls.

the programme

3.30pm registration and coffee
4.00pm welcome

the new pensions regulations following the Spring Budget and Finance Act 2011

- a look at the recent changes including the death of anti-forestalling, £50k cap on annual contributions, Pension Input Periods (PIP) and Carry forward contributions

- including lifetime allowance and defined benefits planning opportunities

- how to manage pressure points and longer term solutions for all the family

5.30pm question & answer session followed by drinks

Tuesday 28 June 2011

For the last few years many have put off planning to reduce their Inheritance Tax bills in the hope that David Cameron would extend the Nil Rate Band to £1m. Having U-turned on this proposal under the Coalition government those with estates of £650,000 + may now wish to reconsider ways to manage their affairs and minimise this tax. This seminar will provide you with a chance to consider the suite of opportunities available to you.

the programme

3.30pm registration and coffee
4.00pm welcome

critical tax issues and areas for consideration including

- lifetime exemptions and gift allowances
- potentially exempt and lifetime transfers
- wills – making wills tax efficient alternative planning opportunities

- making gifts whilst retaining control and an element of access
- insuring the liability
- taking advantage of EIS & BPR relief

5.30pm question & answer session followed by drinks

speakers
