haysmacintyre brings together a vast range of experience that is valuable to membership and trade associations.

With over 40 membership and trade associations being clients of the firm, we have unparalleled experience in advising large and small organisations on a range of financial, management and commercial issues.

Many of the organisations we advise are not for profit organisations but some of which are in the private sector.

For example:

- Association of British Orchestras
- British Cycling Federation
- Electrical Contractors Association
- Federation of Master Builders
- Girls' Schools Association
- Institute and Faculty of Actuaries
- National Association of Shopfitters
- Nursing and Midwifery Council
- Physiological Society
- Royal Yachting Association
- UK Athletics

Located in central London, our firm offers specialist expertise in a number of areas including:

- audit and assurance
- business taxation
- employment issues – PAYE, national insurance, staff Christmas funds
- financial planning – Mutual formation, pension funds
- membership subscriptions – taxation issues
- trading operations
- governance training
- VAT
