We are very pleased to work alongside the Accelerator Academy.

If you would like clarification or assistance with any of the above then please do not hesitate to contact us.

haysmacintyre is a successful firm of Chartered Accountants and tax advisers based in Central London, providing quality accountancy, tax, corporate finance and business advice to entrepreneurs and fast growing businesses. The 24 partners lead a team of 170 staff advising start-ups, fast growing and entrepreneurial businesses, listed companies and social enterprises on a range of commercial and financial challenges.

With over 10 of our partners under 40 we are a youthful firm with a reputation for being dynamic and forward-thinking. Our professionals work in specific sectors which include technology, media, fashion, property, hospitality, leisure, entertainment, financial services and sport so clients benefit from advisers familiar with their industries and already connected to other key professional advisers. Our long-standing involvement with the Growing Business Young Guns, coupled with our own experience of working with entrepreneurs and business owners, means that we have a thorough understanding of issues facing growing businesses so we can support them at every stage from starting up, through growth and diversification, to even floating on the stock market.

As a founding firm of a large international alliance of accountants and lawyers we source reliable, local expertise wherever in the world our clients are growing their businesses and we assist international companies doing business in the UK.
